Pirates clash with Canucks as both clubs aim for wins in LLHL action

■ Daniel Bushman

With the Drake Canucks and Lanigan Pirates both seeking a big victory to help kick start their respective 2022-’23 Long Lake Hockey League seasons, the pair squared off in Lanigan Nov. 26 before Lanigan met Watrous and Drake faced Wynyard.

Following a 4-2 defeat against Davidson Nov. 23 and losing 11-2 in Foam Lake Nov. 25, the Lanigan Pirates were hoping to find the win column against Drake who was just coming off a 7-2 loss in Wynyard Nov. 25.

In the opening frame Nov. 26, Lanigan netminder Mack Shields and Drake goalie Mason Briske held shooters at bay until 7:35 remaining when Ethan Gray would beat Briske to make it 1-0 for the home team. With the assist going to Dayden Dvernichuk, Lanigan led until close to the 18 minute mark before Drake replied courtesy of a Nolan Blair goal to tie the game at one.

Heading into the second frame, both clubs took aim at nabbing the lead. As was the case in the first period, Lanigan tallied first, this time from Mitch Girolami with 10:52 to go. That would be it for scoring in period two as the Pirates held a 2-1 advantage going into the third.

In the final frame, it did not take long for the Canucks to respond as Maguire Blair tied the contest with 18:21 remaining as Dexter Gusikoski and Maguire Scheidt added the helpers. With the game tied at two, the back and forth continued on the scoreboard as Lanigan retook the lead with 15:52 to play. Following the Nick Shumlanski tally, the visitors continued to press to try and tie the game and just over three minutes later, Cam Blair made it 3-3 shorthanded. Looking to reverse the scoring trend, Drake was next to hit the back of the net, taking its first lead of the game with 7:33 to play. With Terrel Draude giving the Canuks a 4-3 advantage late in the period, Drake looked to preserve its lead but Lanigan had other ideas. With time ticking off the clock, Lanigan’s Brynn (see back page: PIRATES)

Following its home game against the Drake Canucks, the Lanigan Pirates headed to Watrous to face the Winterhawks (pictured). While the team fell behind after 20 minutes of play, Lanigan responded in a big way in the middle frame and took a 7-4 advantage into the third. The Pirates continued to press and after 60 minutes, collected a 9-5 victory. Josh Bly led the way for Lanigan with three markers.

Drake Winterfest packed with full slate of fun

■ Daniel Bushman

With snow flying last week and the calendar flipping over to December, residents of Drake have been counting down the days to one of the community's largest events of the year.

Spanning three days (Dec. 16 to 18), a plethora of activities have been planned as part of the 2022 Drake Winterfest.

Graciously taking some time out of her busy schedule, Drake Winterfest Chairperson Erin Richard shared a bit about this year's event, why people from Drake and the surrounding areas should come check it out and the importance of it to the community.

Are you looking forward to this year's Drake Winterfest?

We are looking forward to expanding our event from a two day celebration to a full weekend (three day event). We are excited to gather and share in all the great organizations that make our community great. The new events this year of holiday-themed fireworks, the hockey shootout and the pie auction on Friday night will be great additions to the weekend. We are also excited to have a family-focused Sunday with many organizations joining us to provide activities for all.

Is there something for everyone to enjoy over the weekend?

Whether you are two years old or 80 years old there is something for everyone over the weekend. From community meals and entertainment to enjoying watching local youth and adults engage in sports. We believe that we have offered opportunities for everyone to participate and enjoy the weekend.

Does Drake Winterfest benefit the entire community?

We were very fortunate to have some amazing sponsors this year to support our events. This is resulting in any funds raised being directly invested back into the Drake community to support recreation, culture, and sports activities. The Winterfest weekend is an opportunity for local organizations to showcase what they have to offer to the community.

Our goal is to reinvest in the community to make it prosperous and continue to grow Winterfest into a staple event that people can look forward to every year.

We are also running a food and winter gear drive at the Sportsplex for the month of December for the local food bank.

How great has the support been from the community for this event?

The amount of people who have stepped up and volunteered for this event has been tremendous. We are blown away by the support our small committee has received.

Why should people come to check it out?

Here are the top 10 reasons to come check out Drake Winterfest weekend:

10) The weekend is going to kick off with a big bang with holiday-themed fireworks Friday night.

9) Be amazed by the performance of "Super Ron" on Sunday during our family day activities including a Santa and Friends skate and sleigh rides.

8) Support local organizations like the Drake Skating Club and

Last Mountain Bowbenders as they showcase their organizations, and others who participate in the local celebrity shootout.

7) In the evening, enjoy the festively decorated homes in the Light Up Drake Competition.

6) Social while singing festive tunes in a Christmas Carol and Fellowship Sunday morning with the North Star Mennonite and Prairie Life Christian Fellowship churches.

5) Dance the night away with the country band, Detour, who played at Country Thunder in 2022.

4) Yummm . . . Drake is known for their delicious pies. So we figured we would auction them off to help local organizations.

3) Take in some amazing hockey action watching players from U7 to senior display their amazing skills.

2) Enjoy some delicious meals from beef on a bun and a pancake breakfast to a hotdog and marshmallow roast.

1) Being with your family, friends and neighbours is the best way to build community and celebrate the holiday (see page six: DRAKE)

Local area painter looking to make a splash

■ Daniel Bushman

With an opportunity to reside in rural Saskatchewan, not only did Stephen Brown and his family decide to call the local area home but since launching his business about a year ago, Brown has been able to brush up on his skills while meeting some new faces.

"Inside Out Painting started when I moved my family to the Watrous and Lanigan area last March," shared Brown who first started painting in Edmonton around 2007.

Always wanting to move somewhere more reasonable and affordable, Brown explained he and his wife headed east from Edmonton to Saskatoon in 2018 where he completed a MA in philosophy. Going back to painting while in the Saskatchewan city, Brown had the opportunity to work as a lead painter with a large company before leaving the city for "the peace and beauty of rural Saskatchewan."

Growing up in rural Alberta, both Stephen and his wife enjoyed the way of life in a rural setting so when they recently made the move to a similar situation in Saskatchewan, he said it felt like coming home. Able to do new homes, those under renovation, interiors and exteriors and residential and commercial, since relocating near Guernsey, Stephen along with his truck containing the 'Inside Out Painting' logo can be spotted in communities like Watrous, Lanigan, Humboldt and those in between.

"We already love living and working in this area and as our first year winds up we look forward to many more. People can get in touch with me if they like by calling 306-713-1836 or emailing sbrown@insideoutsask.com."

uncomplIcATed - THANK YOU FOR ALL THE GIFTS WE TAKE FOR GRANTED EVERY DAY LIKE PUMPKINS AND LLAMAS AND STARS AND SNOW. THANK YOU . . FOR THE BIG THINGS LIKE OXYGEN AND THE SUN COMING UP EVERY DAY, AND THE LITTLE THINGS LIKE CRANBERRY SAUCE AND FIBER OPTICS. ~Martha Williamson, from Touched By An Angel

by Arlene Martin

Every night I have a habit of standing by the garden doors and taking one last glance at the days' final glow. Tonight the amber moon, like an enormous golden pendant against the black velvet night sky, is Christmas card perfect. The lights in the tall outdoor lamp reflect the iridescence of recent snow that has fallen on our deck. I am spell-bound also by the encompassing galaxy of gleaming, glittering stars. You wouldn't know it is Christmas at our home. Since my stroke I find even the most mundane chores require energy that I no longer have. To walk down the stairs and fetch the totes storing the Christmas things will leave me breathless and require a rest before continuing. So I am content without a decorated house. I have everything and more to celebrate as Nature embellishes the quiet beauty outside our little house on the prairie. I am thankful that all is 'mostly' good and beautiful in my world. I am coping with the after effects of what a stroke did to me, a vivid reminder like reaching for a sparkling snowflake that only melts in a warm hand - tomorrow is never mine to hold. Literally star-struck, I am grateful simply for the wonder of being audience to the beauty and brilliance of the celestial wintry cathedral on the cold side of my window. Just an unhurried glance outside before I seal up the day and sleep my way into another, brand new one. As that amber moon winks a final goodnight, my soul is breathing thank you! A roof over my head and a warm cozy place to call home, food in the refrigerator and a measureless collection of caring family and friends. Yes, I am wounded - fractured by the thing that happened inside my head but slowly I am healing. For the moment, by the grace of, and secure in the hand of Heaven, I am allowed the gift of just being! I am indebted for the privilege, my fleeting okay by the universe to be here at this splendid moment in time. But even more so now I do lie awake at night and I ask, 'Whatever have I done SO right to be exceptionally fortunate and blessed?' Not in the monetary sense but simply to be a participant in this particular interval and time watching the lives of my children play out, enjoying the rolling and reverberation of seasons. One last look as exhaustion overwhelms me, the words of Amy Carmichael resonate within my spirit: 'I am the God of the stars. They do not lose their way; Not one do I mislay. Their times are in My hand; They move at My command . . I am the God of the stars. Lift up thine eyes and see - As far as mortal may Into Eternity; And stay thy heart on Me.' One last glance at the days' final blush as the Star of the season whispers a hushed and gentle "Shalom".

Cheese Biscuits

Ingredients:

- 1 1/3 cups flour
- 3 tsp. baking powder
- 3 tsp. parsley flakes
- 1 tsp. chili powder
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1/2 cup cold butter
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 egg, beaten
- 1 1/2 cups shredded sharp cheddar cheese

Directions:

Note: you can make this using Bisquick mix if you like. Use the full recipe on the box, mix according to directions, adding the other ingredients on this recipe list except the butter and milk. I usually add the egg to the recipe even if I use the mix. Otherwise the instructions are as follows for the recipe. Combine first five ingredients, cut in the butter until the mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Mix the egg into the milk, stir this into the crumb mixture just until moistened. Fold in the cheese, mix well. Turn onto lightly floured surface, roll to about 1/2 inch thick. I usually just cut mine into squares with a knife so there is no need to re-roll the scraps and all the biscuits stay tender. Bake at 450°F for eight to 10 minutes. Watch carefully as they go from brown to burnt quickly at this temperature. Best served warm.

On arrival, officers found 13 residences/trailers were broken into in the area. There were no occupants at any of the residences at the time of the investigation. Police spoke with the owners, and are compiling a list of stolen items. The investigation is ongoing with the assistance of the Candle Lake Community Safety Officers.

Smeaton RCMP understand the area is largely seasonal; however, would like to ask people in the area of the Candle Lake Airpark to contact police if they have seen anything suspicious recently.

Anyone with information can contact Smeaton RCMP at 306-426-2630. Information can also be submitted anonymously through Saskatchewan Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477) or at www.saskcrimestoppers.com.

Collision north of Rose Valley

At approximately 8 p.m.

Nov. 27, Rose Valley RCMP received a report of a collision on Hwy. 35, approximately six kilometres north of Rose Valley. Initial investigation determined a pickup truck and a farm tractor hauling a trailer collided.

The pickup truck had three occupants. An adult female passenger passed away at the scene. She has been identified as a 78-year-old from Sylvania. Her family has been notified. A child passenger was taken to hospital with injuries described as serious. RCMP do not have an update on their condition. The adult male driver was taken to hospital with injuries described as non-life-threatening.

The driver of the farm tractor was not injured. Hwy. 35 was closed for initial investigation but has since reopened. Rose Valley RCMP continue to investigate with the assistance of a Saskatchewan RCMP collision reconstructionist.

Deloris Wilson (Sutherland) • 306-944-4852

We visited Isabelle Langston in Watrous and send sympathy to her for losing her husband and her brother this year.

While coming back from Humboldt, on the correction line, a moose was going to cross the road in front of the truck but he changed his mind the last minute, thank goodness.

The ladies are working on putting quilt squares together.

Visiting us were Gary and Linda Whitehead.

Also visiting us were Kenny and Inez of Saskatoon and Linda.

Ed and Elaine Drachenberg of Humboldt were to Winnipeg to see their granddaughter on her birthday.

Get well to anyone ill and get well soon.

Sandra Reid • 306-227-1193

On Saturday, Nov. 26, we had a beautiful day for our craft fair, the weather was awesome for people travelling or just walking over. A few local people came over to the school on Friday and helped set up tables and chairs, then helped again after the event to put the tables and chairs away. Their help was so greatly appreciated! We had 24 rented tables, unfortunately three of them could not make it. They were missed, but the shoppers kept busy with the remaining tables. We did a 50/50 draw and we had some very nice donated articles to use for the raffle table, which was really enjoyed by all. The draws were done between 2:30 and 3 p.m. It was so much fun!

Monday, Nov. 28, even though the weather was a little blustery and the roads were a little full with snow, we still joined together for Blankets for Canada. Sewing squares together and enjoying an afternoon with some chitchat was a nice way to pass a blustery day and to know that you are doing it to help others in need makes it a little more special.

Best wishes to anyone who might be under the weather. I hope you feel better soon. Have a holly jolly week!

Smith tied the game with 3:08 to play as Josh Bly and Brandon Scheidl added the helpers.

Tied at four, both clubs looked to try and grab the go-ahead marker before time expired but the goalies held their own and at the buzzer, overtime was needed. In the added frame, with 5:04 to play, Lanigan's Zach Garret was able to solve Briske and gave the Pirates a 5-4 victory, its first of the year while Drake dropped to 0-2-1.

Both teams were scheduled to play Tuesday, Nov. 29 with Lanigan headed to Watrous and Drake hosting Wynyard.

In Watrous, the Winterhawks grabbed a 3-1 first period lead before the Pirates stormed back in the second period with five goals, three on the power play, and took a 7-4 advantage into the final frame. In period three, Lanigan tallied twice while Watrous countered with one marker as the Pirates skated away with a 9-5 victory. Josh Bly led the team with three goals while Nick Shumlanski chipped in with a pair, as part of the team's nine goals, including one shorthanded.

Meanwhile Drake welcomed the Monarchs to town and despite giving up the first goal of the contest, they scored five times in the first 20 minutes to lead 5-1. Eric Roy, Carter Hansen, John Lawrence, Maguire Scheidt and David Stumborg all registered markers.

In the second, Stumborg added his second of the game followed by a Carter Coben power play goal while the visitors were able to register three goals of their own. With a flurry of activity, through 40 minutes, Drake held a 7-4 advantage. In the third, Lawrence notched his second of the game with 11:31 left in the contest and that would be all as the Canucks won 8-4.

- photos by Daniel Bushman

Following the pair of Nov. 29 games, Lanigan headed to LeRoy Dec. 2 while Watrous was to host Wynyard Dec. 3.

WSA releases winter conditions forecast

■ media release

The Water Security Agency's (WSA) 2022 Conditions at Freeze-up Report indicates that most areas of the province are on the dry side going into the winter. While some areas of the province experienced higher than normal spring and early summer precipitation, the last half of the summer and early fall were dry resulting in drier than normal soil moisture conditions at freeze-up.

Most larger water supply reservoirs across southern and central Saskatchewan have adequate supplies.

At this time, there are no areas where WSA believes that there is a heightened risk of above normal spring runoff in 2023. There is, however, concern of surface water supply issues in the southwest if winter snowfall is below average.

The southwest and east-central portions of the province experienced two significant snowfall events this fall that melted, improving near surface soil moistures. Snow surveys in February 2023 will help determine if the moisture will infiltrate into the soil or run off toward reservoirs.

WSA issues the Conditions at Freeze-up Report during the late fall/early winter period. Freeze-up conditions, in combination with the winter snowpack, becomes the initial base for the spring snowmelt runoff forecast. This report gives an early indication of areas that are more vulnerable to potentially above or below normal runoff in the spring. It is not a spring runoff forecast, as winter snow accumulation is an integral component in the runoff yield during the melt and is impossible to predict at this juncture.

This assessment is compiled with data from various sources including Environment and Climate Change Canada and the US National Weather Service. WSA is anticipating near normal temperatures but larger snowpacks this year (based on historical data).
