One of the great illusions we fall into is that we are in control. The pandemic, and now increasing occurrences of climate disasters, are doing a great job in shattering our naive illusions of control and of agency. A tiny virus, atmospheric rivers, droughts, flooding and mudslides are evaporating all simplistic assumptions and expectations. We are shaken from complacency, discovering anew our vulnerability, at the mercy of forces far greater than we are.

There is of course a real irony in such a discovery. The irony is that most people in the world live acutely with the realization that their existence is precarious: people in war-torn countries, victims of oppression and injustice, refugees from wars, climate change or natural disasters, all are faced with forces far greater than themselves every day. Indigenous fellow-Canadians live with the same stark truth: they know their lives, their culture, their language and spirituality to be deprived of security and stability and comfort. Those of us who are well-off and privileged are often oblivious to the precarious nature of our lives.

Crazy, wild-haired John the Baptist is after one thing: God's type of joy. And God's type of joy requires an answer to a crucial question: What is joy if it isn't drenched in God's truth and justice? Sure, we can settle for the world's cheap joy promised by consumer frenzy and saccharine parties. We can have a great Christmas without seeking truth and justice. But that type of Christmas would not honour God, and would not honour our Lord's holy birth.

Today, in our beloved Canada, we are reckoning with deep wounds which the birth of our great nation has inflicted upon the First Peoples of this land. If we truly care for God's type of joy to fill our hearts we have no choice but to engage this reckoning. In fact, the longer we resist opening our minds and hearts, the longer the virus of inter-generational trauma risks obstructing any attempt at healing our nation. If we truly care for God's joy in our hearts and for the healing of the nation, we have no choice but to walk into the reckoning with our hearts' eyes and ears wide-open.

John the Baptist urged his listeners to do exactly that. In preparation for the coming of the Messiah, John announced a baptism of repentance, signalling a change to a new way of living. Cut to the core, his listeners asked him right away: "What should we do now?" Bear fruits worthy of repentance, John replies. John points them to honesty, reflected in concrete acts of justice. Genuine repentance leads to acts of justice and integrity.

Summoned first by the Truth and Reconciliation Commission, and more recently by children in unmarked graves, what would John the Baptist ask of us in today's world, in today's Canada? It is mightily urgent for our personal Christian integrity and credibility, and for our own country's future that we make every possible effort to gain a new understanding of the history of this land, especially about the social, cultural, and spiritual price paid by Indigenous Peoples, still today.

As we prepare to celebrate the birth of the Prince of Peace in our homes and in our churches, we are encouraged to make room at our family tables for our Indigenous relatives. Listen and learn. Become aware of racist attitudes embedded in our culture, our communities, and our way of seeing things. Pray for the grace to listen to Indigenous people, to their past and present experience.

Resolve to learn about Indigenous culture and ways; there is a richness there that can help us become more human, more in touch with creation and better able to live well in sustainable ways on this land. Read, ponder and discuss the Treaties and the TRC's Calls to Action – its principles of reconciliation, and discern how to engage these. Learn about the need for systemic change in education, access to healthcare and to clean water, in restorative justice, in addressing inter-generational trauma, in treaty rights and responsibilities, and in addressing the needs of Indigenous youth. Explore in conversation with Indigenous people how we can walk together in a good way. Always heed the words from Indigenous people themselves, “nothing about us without us.”

Dismissing all forms of denial, polite piety, and cheap cheer, will we allow the radical honesty of Scripture to make us honest, too? It matters little that none of us were directly to blame for the abuse in Residential Schools.

What matters is that we together as churches, and as one nation under heaven, have inherited a historical burden of enormous proportions. Today we are called to own the sin of our ancestors, to seek repentance and reconciliation together.

So this Christmas, commit to God's ways of justice and reconciliation. Choose the better story of Jesus, the story that can sustain us in hard times, the story that pushes us into an examination of our national history, the story of God's love which gave birth to our very being, the story that can hold us close, giving meaning and direction and purpose, the story that grants mercy and new beginnings each day. Only reconciled hearts and a healed nation can give glory to God. Merry Christmas.

I don't know if I was bad or good. I started gymnastics and it was so much fun. I go to Watrous Elementary School.

I wish for makeup and a pop-it, and a big LOL. I'll be happy to have anyone.

I'll make sure we leave milk and cookies. Have a Merry Christmas. I wish you safe travels.

Dear Santa:

I can't wait for you to come. I have been very busy doing dance. I am in 3H and we have been making lots of Christmas things.

I would really love anything you bring me but I would really like a new Barbie and a new art kit. I would like those but if you can't get me it, it's ok.

I will be at my grandma's house on Christmas Eve but I will be at my house on Christmas. Merry Christmas!

I wish for a Nintendo Switch and a PlayStation Portable and a real lightsaber that cuts stuff. I'd also like the Dog Man collection of books.

Your friend,

Dear Santa:

I'm eight years old and I'm in grade three. I really enjoy video games and soccer. I also like playing with my friends.

I really want a VR headset and some minecoins so I can play Skyblock in Minecraft. I'd like a texture pack too if possible.

I will leave some cookies and milk for you in the living room. I hope you have a safe trip around the world.

Dear Santa:

I am busy with hockey and my BFF is on my team. My BFF is Tanner and he is in my class. I am sometimes babysitting my baby brother Camden and Reid for like a minute or more.

I would like more times to play with Tanner. And I would be happy if I also got a cool board game or something else like Elf on the Shelf. I would be very happy if I got one of them.

I hope you have safe travels. I will either be at home or my grandpa's farm. What is your favourite drink? Eggnog or milk?

Your friend,

Dear Santa:

I have been really busy with hockey. My brother and I have hockey every day. I'm in grade three and I'm eight years old. My sister is in kindergarten and my teacher is my sister's music teacher. My sister loves kindergarten and I love grade three because my teacher is really nice.

This year for Christmas I would like a Tinker Crate and Nerf gun. I'd also like some type of wood craft or even a Lego set. I'm happy if you give me one of those because it would be exciting. Also I would like an Elf on the Shelf because I don't have one and it would be great.

I hope you have safe travels. Mrs. Claus makes great cookies. Are you and the elves getting ready Christmas?

This year I would love to get a Fortnite Nerf gun. I don't care which one. I also want to have a new DS. My other one is lost. I've been wanting this one for a long time. A Nintendo Switch. My brother has one but I really wish I could get one of them.

I hope you have safe travels. I hope you don't have any trouble with anything like presents. I think I will be at my house or my grandma's house.

Dear Santa:

This year I've been busy at hockey and watching my sister and brother. It is chilly out at school these days. My best friend is beside me and in my classroom. My BFF is Rylan. At home I am playing with my siblings.

For Christmas I'd like to have more time with Rylan too. Could I also have another game for my Xbox? I would really be glad if I could have a target for my mini sticks.

I hope you have safe travels. I can't wait to see my presents. This time I'm still staying at my house and grandma and grandpa's house. We will leave some yummy cookies out.

Dear Santa Claus,

How have you been this year? How have Mrs. Claus and the elves been doing? Have the reindeer been practicing flying through the air? How many cookies do you eat on Christmas? Just so you know, I've been really good this year.

I've been helping my family and doing my chores like laundry, dishes and scooping up dog doodie.

A few things I'd like for Christmas are an Xbox with a hockey game, a huge Lego set and Blokus. That's all I would want for Christmas this year. I hope you can find my house on Christmas!

Love,

Dear Santa Claus,

How have you been this year Santa? How are the reindeer doing? How have Mrs. Claus and the elves been doing? How many elves are there in the North Pole? On Christmas night I'll leave you milk and cookies. I have been really good this year. I help around the farm. I feed the cats. I feed the chickens and the dogs. I even give grain to the horses. I would love a remote control truck that can drive in the sand, snow and water. I want a black and white kitten. The kitten should be cute and soft. I live on a farm. It is a good place to have a kitten. I hope you have a good Christmas and a Happy New Year.

How are you doing? What about the reindeer, Mrs. Claus and the elves? I really really really can't wait for you to come. I've been so super good. I have in so many ways. I help my grandma and grandpa with their petting zoo. I help my sisters and I'm not a poor sport. I even eat all my food and I mean who does that? I'm going to put out some cookies and milk. My favourite reindeer is Rudolph. I'll leave an extra carrot for him. I would be so grateful to play with the biggest Lego set in the world for the best kid in the world.

Dear Santa Claus,
How are you? I can't wait to hear the sleigh bells. How are the reindeer: Dasher, Dancer, Donner, Blitzen, Prancer, Cupid, Vixen, Comet and Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer? I can't wait to make cookies for you. Is Buddy ready to come to my house? This year I would like a bunch of gymnastics mats and the uneven gymnastics bars. And please please please I would LOVE a real puppy but not a little one please, like a Husky. I even have a name for it, Bailey. Please, I'm begging you. At the North Pole is there COVID-19? Do you need masks? What do the elves look like? Can you send a picture? I hope you have a good Christmas. I love you.
From, Brynlee Jones Gr. 3J, WES

Dear Santa Claus,
How have you been this year? Are the elves being good? I have 2 questions:
1. Do the elves get presents if they are good?
2. How do you deliver all the presents in one night? Because when one side of the earth is day the other is night.
I have been good this year. I have been helping my family do chores and helping them clean. This is a hard ask but can I have a PS4 or 5 please and some Lego sets? I will leave out cookies and milk for you and some carrots for the reindeer.
From, Colton Ritthaler Gr. 3J, WES

Dear Santa Claus,
How are you this year? How are Mrs. Claus and the elves doing? How are Dasher, Dancer, Donner, Blitzen, Prancer, Cupid, Vixen, Comet and Rudolph? How many elves do you have? What do the elves do when they're not working? I've been really good this year. I am good in school and I'm helping with supper. Can I please have a real puppy or rainbow slime? I'm going to leave you milk and cookies and carrots for the reindeer.
Love, Lochlyn Sinnamon Gr. 3J, WES

Dear Santa Claus,
I love you. I hope you have a great Christmas. I'm putting up the Christmas tree. I've been good this year. I've been trying to keep my room clean. I've been trying in school. I will leave cookies out for you. Would you like some milk or hot chocolate? Rudolph is my fave reindeer. I will leave an extra carrot for him. I think I will be at my mom's for Christmas. I would really like an ipad.
Love, Jude Gr. 3J, WES

Dear Santa Claus,
How have you been? How are your reindeer doing? Is there COVID at the North Pole? Do you have to wear a mask too? I have been a very good boy this year. I would like a toy, maybe a new PJ Mask toy. My tree is up. It has lots of ornaments on it. I will leave you cookies and milk.
Love, Sam Gr. 3J, WES

Dear Santa Claus,
How are you, Mrs. Claus, the elves and reindeer? Are the reindeer practicing their flying lessons? I have been really good. I have been helping with a lot of stuff like washing the dishes. Can I have slime, a rainbow high Jade, stuffies, Barbies, LOL dolls and a stuffed cow? For my mom, I'd like a baby that looks real and feels real. I'll leave you cookies and milk.
Love, Madison Gr. 3J, WES

Dear Saint Nick,
Yo wassup! How are the elves and Mrs. Claus doing? How are the reindeer: Dasher, Donner, Dancer, Vixen, Blitzen, Prancer, Cupid, Comet, and the most important reindeer, Rudolph doing? Have they been practicing or do you not do that? Anyway, this year I have been very good, like, for example I always finish my supper and breakfast, I get up early so me and my parents have no stress, and I spray the kitties when they are doing something bad. This year, I want anything for the Switch, a PS5, a kitty or a few more, some investigator books, the Great Guinness Book of World Records 2022, Diary of a Wimpy number 16, and an iphone 15, and Guitar Hero and the guitar for it on the Wii. I know these are expensive, but I think you and the elves can pull it off.
Sincerely, Sawyer Wolff Gr. 3J, WES

Dear Santa Claus,

I live in Watrous at 307 12 Avenue East. How have you been this year? How are Mrs. Claus and the elves? How are your reindeer? What do you do when you are not working at the North Pole? How many elves are in your factory? I moved from South Africa to Canada. I hope that you can find me here. I have been very helpful to my mom and dad. I clean my room and playroom. I do my homework. I am kind to my two sisters. I really want a guitar and a cot (bed) and pram (stroller) for my doll. My doll is 22 inches. Merry Christmas, Santa.
Love, Vine Gordon Gr. 3J, WES

Dear Santa Claus,
How are you doing this year? How many letters do you get a day? Is it cold in the North Pole? Is it true that Rudolph actually has a red nose? Do you like the show Bugs Bunny? My favourite holiday is Christmas, was it yours? I don't know if I'm being good this year. I just thought of some chores that I do, I water the cows. I am excited for Christmas! May I please have this for Christmas: I'd like a grain set with the tractor with the auger, a grain cart and grain truck. There's two brands of toys: John Deere and Case. I'll take what's easier to make. I'd also like a Dodge truck with a gooseneck trailer and the new Chevrolet trucks they made. The colours can be black or white and the scale is 1/64 scale, and the quad shed.
Love, James Olah Gr. 3J, WES

Dear Santa Claus,
How have you been this year? How is Dasher? Do we leave enough carrots out? What is your favourite cookie? I have been very good this year. I help my mom a lot. I take in groceries from the car and help put them away. I help get things out for Mom like bowls way up high. She lifts me up and I grab it. I help put away toys and do the laundry. I would really like a kitten calendar for Christmas and a Canadian Doll and some Barbies.

Love, Willow Gr. 3J, WES

Dear Santa Claus,
How have you been this year? I have been good. Do you have cows at the North Pole? I like ducks. You should get some ducks. Can I have two iTunes cards please? Can I have a duck shaped present please? As you can tell, I have a good sense of humour. Would you like me to leave some hay for the reindeer? I will also leave the reindeer some carrots. We have gluten-free cookies. I will leave some out for you to try. If you don't like those cookies, I can give you some normal cookies.
Yours truly, Thomas Thoner Gr. 3J, WES

Dear Santa Claus,
How have you been since last year? I have been wondering how Mrs. Claus and the elves are doing? Have the reindeer been practicing flying in the sky yet? Have the elves been making toys yet? How many elves do you have? I would like to tell you I have been great. I have done my homework and I've been playing outside. Could I tell you what I want? I would like a real puppy. My mom wouldn't like to buy me one but I would love one. I would love anything you give me. I'm not picky about toys. I know these are expensive but I would like an iPhone 11 and a girl puppy named Rosalette if it's a boy named Leo. But anything is fine with me. I will leave you some cookies and carrots for the reindeer. Have a Merry Christmas.

Love, Marlee Solar Gr. 3J, WES
Dear Santa Claus,
How are you doing? Are you ready for Christmas and how are your reindeer? I have been very good and I like playing nice with my brother. I clean my room and I am respectful to my parents. I don't have homework and my favourite subject in school is math. I hope my dogs don't chase you. What I would like for Christmas is a Lego fire station, a Lego plane station with an airport and a Lego police station. Christmas is my favourite holiday.

Love, Rylen Vanthuyne Gr. 3J, WES
