

PIDHORODETSKY,

Ernest

Mar. 18, 1943 -

Jan. 22, 2025

Ernest Pidhorodetsky passed away on January 22, 2025, in Saskatoon.

Ernest leaves to mourn his wife of 57 years, Joyce; daughter Debra Haubrich

(Richard) and grandchildren Dayton Haubrich (Jessi), Anthony Haubrich (Sophia), Samantha Haubrich, Karlie Pidhorodetsky (Jay), Carter Pidhorodetsky (Jocelyn); brother Eugene Pidhorodetsky, sister Marion Pidhorodetsky, and brother-in-law Len Heinrichs.

Ernest was predeceased by his parents Alexander and Annie; son Todd; grandson Derek Pidhorodetsky; parents-in-law Tim and Irene Clark; sisters-in-law Jean Heinrichs and Pearl Pidhorodetsky; brother-in-law Bruce King.

Ernest was born in Jasmin, Sask. on March 18, 1943, the youngest of three children. Growing up on the family farm, he went to teachers college and began his teaching career in Simpson, where he met and married Joyce. Ernest spent his 30-year career in Simpson, spending five years as principal of the school.

He enjoyed camping, gardening, helping his brother on the family farm when he could, and spending time with his family. Other passions included films, sports, books, and music, even collecting guitars in later years. After retiring from teaching, you could find Ernest substitute teaching in the area, or behind a video camera recording weddings, graduations and family events. Many people in surrounding communities have video tapes and DVD recordings of their special events that Ernest recorded, edited and produced on the PC that he taught himself to use.

Donations in his memory may be made to the Canadian Heart and Stroke Foundation or the Simpson Cemetery Fund.

A memorial service will be held for Ernest on April 26, 2025 at 11 a.m. at Mourning Glory Acadia McKague's Funeral Centre, 915 Acadia Drive, Saskatoon.

Arrangements entrusted to Ryan Lensen, Mourning Glory Acadia McKague's Funeral Centre 306-955-1600. To share memories of Ernest or send condolences please visit www.acdiamckaguesfuneralcentre.com
