

WEISS,
(nee Paetsch)
Debra Ann

We, the loving family of Debra Weiss, regretfully announce her sudden and unexpected passing in her home, at the age of 69 years, on Saturday, January 25, 2025.

Debbie is survived by her husband of just over 50 years, Mervin; her son Christopher; her daughter Stephanie (Aaron); her granddaughters Ashton (Ashton), Marissa (Caydin), Peyton and Avery; great-granddaughter Kari; mother Linda Paetsch; siblings Neil, Dianne (Jeff), Sharon (Ed), David (Rita), Margaret (Scott) and Gloria (Jon); in-laws Nelda, Walter, Victor (Margaret), Bruno (Marjorie) and Rhonda (Darren); numerous nieces and nephews; and Harley, her Shih-Tzu puppy. Debbie was predeceased by her father Elmer Paetsch; in-laws Berthold and Erna Weiss; sisters-in-law Joanne Weiss and Ella Loberg; and brothers-in-law Norman Weiss, Irvin Is- sel and David Loberg.

Debbie was the first born to Linda and Elmer Paetsch in Lanigan, Sask. on September 21, 1955. She was raised on a farm in Jansen, Sask. and attended Jansen Elementary School grades one through eight and later graduated from Lanigan Central High School. Debbie enjoyed many sports, taught figure skating, and “floated on ice”, earning her skating Carnival Queen. Being the oldest, she kept busy by helping her parents with her six younger siblings, farm chores, supper picnics in the field, picking stumps and stones, stacking bales, garden- ing, and family time at the skating or curling rink. Debbie was always hard working, no task was too big, and her “Mother Hen” role lasted throughout her entire life.

Debbie and Mervin both grew up in Jansen, Sask. and were married on October 26, 1974, their life in Regina followed. Their marriage was blessed with two children, Christopher and Stephanie, four granddaughters, and one great-grand- daughter. Debbie was always a present and supportive pillar of strength for her granddaughters. The roles that truly filled her heart included being a daughter, sister, granddaughter, mom, wife, grandma, great-grandma, auntie, cousin, niece, sister-in- law, daughter-in-law and friend.
