

Obituary

SHARMAN,
Linda Louise
October 30, 1947 -
April 11, 2025

Linda Louise Sharman (nee McKay), age 77, passed away peacefully on April 11, 2025, in Saskatoon, Sask. Born on October 30, 1947 in Watrous, Sask., Linda lived a life rooted in warmth, connection, and care for those around her.

Linda was the beloved daughter of Irene McKay and the late Robert McKay. She shared her life with her devoted husband Ralph Sharman, with whom she built a loving family and many cherished memories. Together they raised three children: David Sharman (Nathalie), Jenny Jeffery (Bryden), and the late Carla Sharman, who passed away at birth, but was never forgotten. Linda's legacy continues through her grandchildren - Oleska Wasylow, and Jack Jeffery - of whom she was so proud.

Linda is also remembered by her beloved sister Donna Seines (Nils), sister-in-law Carol Sharman, nieces and nephews Darcy, Patrick, and Robin, as well as by many dear friends and extended family whose lives were touched by her kindness and companionship.

Linda is predeceased by her father-in-law and mother-in-law, Ralph and Ivy, and brother-in-law Don.

Above all else, Linda embraced real connection with people. Her warmth left an indelible mark on those who knew her - family members who felt her unwavering support, friends who cherished her company, and all who experienced the sincerity of her presence.

A memorial service to honour Linda's life will be held at 2 p.m. on May 4, 2025 at Fotheringham Funeral Chapel, located at 102 2nd Ave. East in Watrous, Sask. with reception to follow at All Saints Anglican Parish Hall, 310 Main Street, Watrous, Sask. Interment will take place in Watrous Cemetery Columbarium at a later date.

For online condolences, tributes or to make a donation in Linda Sharman's memory, please visit: fotheringham-mcdougall.com

WATROUS FUNERAL HOME

REMCO
MEMORIALS